

IF THE YANKEES TOOK BERLIN
WORDS AND MUSIC
BY
LIEUT. JOSEPH J. SLATTERY

Lieut. JOS. J. SLATTERY

Published by
Lieut. Joseph J. Slattery
309-10 Livingston Bldg.
Rochester, N.Y.

If the Yankees Took Berlin

Arr. by Frederick Melville

Words and Music by JOSEPH J. SLATTERY

Tempo di March

The piano introduction is in 8/8 time, marked ff (fortissimo). It features a melody in the right hand with chords and a bass line in the left hand with eighth notes and rests.

VOICE p

The first vocal section is marked p (piano). The melody is in the right hand, and the piano accompaniment is in the left hand. The lyrics are: "Oh! them Yankee boys by gum, — I'll say were go-ing some, — They sure-ly had them Oh! them Yankee Doo-dle Boys — Are sure the great big noise, — For Par-is and the".

The second vocal section continues the melody. The lyrics are: "Jer-ries in the air; — Kais-er Bill and his six sons, — And Ports they saved the day; — Now the Kaiser and all his huns, — With".

The third vocal section concludes the melody. The lyrics are: "all the oth-er huns, — No doubt are sat-is-fied them Yanks are there; — all their great big guns, — They .ho't that they were nice-ly on their way; —". The piano accompaniment ends with a f (forte) dynamic.

Oh! — you Lus-i - tan-i - a, — It did - n't take them long, — Oh! — you Chateau Thi-er - ry, — They were there good and strong, —

— To make them pay the tolls, — for your poor souls, — And ev-'ry oth-er — And made them turn and run, — and ev - 'ry one, — Could hear them holler thing that they have done; — And can't — the Yankees do it dan - dy?

 "kam-e-rad" all in song; — Now aint — them Yankee doodles dan - dys?

Wood-row we knew they'd win; — They just stopped a while at Metz to put the Pershing you were in trim; — Oh they gave it to them good, "Ov - er

fort-ress on the Fritz,— But they were go-ing ov-er to Ber-lin _____
There' at Bel-lean Wood,— And start-ed things a-go-ing in Ber-lin _____

CHORUS

And if the Yan-kees took Ber-lin, — them mil-i-tar-y men, — For
If the Yan-kees took Ber-lin, — them Un-cle Sammy men — Would

p - ff

all their crook-ed work they'd make them sweat; — Now France will get a - op - en up them Ger-man peo-ple's eyes. — He blind them with his gain, — her Al-sace and Lor-raine, — We more than owe it to you La-fay-Gott — and lots of oth-er rot — And all the world he tried to ter-ror-ette; Oh! you fox-y Foch - ey, ize Oh! you Hoh-en - zol - lern,

We backed you to win; And they'd pay those scoun-drels
You are now all in, And they'd take him and his well, for what they did to E-dith Ca - vell, If the Yank - ee boys went clique And put them a - long with old Czar Nick. If the Yank - ee boys went in and took Ber - lin And if the - lin

in and took Ber - lin And if the - lin

